

LEATHER AND LACE

Discussion Questions

1. Most readers assume that an outlaw in a novel is a male. How do you feel about a female carrying this role?
2. What did you admire the most about Casey in the beginning? What did you like the least about her?
3. Is Casey the type of woman whom you would feel comfortable befriending?
4. When Casey asked God to save Morgan, did she have any idea that He would?
5. Doc was one person Casey could trust. Why? Would you?
6. Why did Doc's Bible seem confusing to Casey?
7. Throughout the book, Casey's thoughts reverted to Rose. Do you think Casey respected her?
8. Morgan was full of hate while he claimed to know God. Have you ever met anyone who refused to give God all of their life? What was the result?
9. How did you feel about Casey using a gun to protect Hank and Maud Stevens? What would you have done? Why?
10. Morgan faced his miserable life with the young preacher in Houston. What did the preacher do that no one had done before?
11. Why do you feel God put Sarah Rainer in Casey's life?
12. Morgan had mixed feelings about finding Casey in Kahlerville. How would you have felt?
13. Did you ever lie to protect yourself? What happened when the truth came to light?
14. When Casey finally gave her life to the Lord, she realized she must clear her name. Did you agree with her plan to work with the federal marshals?
15. When Jenkins finally caught up with Casey, how did you feel about how Morgan handled the situation?
16. What was the unforgettable moment for you in Leather and Lace?