

When the Nile Runs Red

Questions

1. Could you trust a man who had once persecuted your people?
2. Larson followed her husband into Darfur because she was afraid he might attempt to meet up with his family. Do you think that was a foolish venture? Why or why not?
3. Ben didn't want anyone to know about his cancer. What do you think was the real reason why he wanted the information kept secret?
4. Do you think Larson should have left Sudan once she learned of her pregnancy?
5. How far would you go to reach unsaved family members?
6. Ben desperately wanted a relationship with his son. Did Ben learn anything from his pursuit?
7. Nizam indicated a sincere desire to learn about Christianity. Did you believe him?
8. Sarah went to her death with a terrible secret. How did you feel about her actions?
9. Santino lived two lives. When the book ended, what were your thoughts about him?
10. Nizam died saving Larson, Daruka, and David's lives. Why do you think he went back inside the fire?
11. Paul and Larson had issues of trust when the world around them seemed to crumble. What about you? Where do you turn when your world spins out of control?
12. Paul and Larson decided to remain in Sudan. What about you? What would you have done given those same circumstances?